

Prof. Juho Mäkiö

Prof. Mäkiö joined the University of Applied Sciences Emden / Leer and became full professor in computer sciences. Prof. Mäkiö has had a leading role in both international and national industrial and research projects.

Prof. Mäkiö has co-created an innovative task centric holistic teaching method – T-CHAT, that has been successfully applied in a number of international interdisciplinary educational projects and international research projects.

Prof. Mäkiö has been for many years guest professor in a number of international and national universities.